

August and September 2019

THE FAITH MESSENGER

Even though it sure seems like it's too soon, school has cranked up and is going strong. Pray for all our students, teachers and administrators as they begin this new school year. Our children are our future, and we need to pray faithfully for their well being and success.

- ◆ Did you know Pastor Joe is teaching a Bible class at FCA? He's teaching the 7th and 8th grade from 8:15 to 9am each day.
- ◆ We will kick-off a new Sunday School curriculum on Sunday, September 8th beginning with breakfast at 10am. All are invited to attend.
- ◆ Saturday, September 21st is planned for a work day here at the church. Details will come later.
- ◆ On Thursday, October 24th, our church will host the Palmetto Presbytery meeting. If you are interested in helping in anyway for this special event, please speak with Pastor Joe.
- ◆ The Women in the Church Fall Conference is coming up in November. It will again be held in Myrtle Beach. Details will be made later.
- ◆ Ann O'Neal has decided to make a career change and has been taking classes to become licensed to sell real estate in North Carolina.
- ◆ Gene and Becky Marsh have become first time campers. They recently bought a new unit and are enjoying the camping experience since retiring.
- ◆ Tony Purvis is still traveling and doing his videos of unique and interesting places. Check him out on You Tube under Carolina Tony. You never know just where he will be next!
- ◆ Jim Foxworth is now the Peanut Man. Well, selling boiled peanuts really. He is often at different locations around town. Check with Mary K. if you want a bag or two.

“Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change.” James 1:17

Change will come, no stopping it. The world's idea of acceptability changes from day to day. Relationships change, children grow up, physical strength declines and so on.

Isn't it a great comfort to know God never changes!
