The Lord's Day

December 29th, 2019

"We must not say, 'I am perfect; I cannot fall.' We should humble ourselves and be afraid that though we stand today, we may be overthrown tomorrow. I myself, though I am a doctor of divinity and have now preached Christ and fought against the devil in his false teachers for a long while, have found in my own experience how difficult this is. I cannot shake off Satan as I wish, nor can I experience Christ as the Scripture shows him. Often the devil sets before my eyes a false Christ. But thanks be to God who keeps us in the Word, in faith, and in prayer, so that we may walk before him in humility and fear and not presume on our own wisdom, righteousness, and strength, but rather trust in the power of Christ who is strong when we are weak and through us weak and feeble creatures continually overcomes and triumphs. To him be glory forever!" – Martin Luther

*Call to Worship

Psalm 145:10-13 ESV

All your works shall give thanks to you, O Lord, and all your saints shall bless you! They shall speak of the glory of your kingdom and tell of your power, to make known to the children of man your mighty deeds, and the glorious splendor of your kingdom. Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and your dominion endures throughout all generations. The Lord is faithful in all his words and kind in all his works.

Confession of Faith

Of God's Covenant With Man, WCF 7.5

We believe...

This covenant was differently administered in the time of the law, and in the time of the gospel; under the law it was administered by promises, prophecies, sacrifices, circumcision, the paschal lamb, and other types and ordinances delivered to the people of the Jews, all fore signifying Christ to come, which were for that time sufficient and efficacious, through the operation of the Spirit, to instruct and build up the elect in faith in the promised Messiah, by whom they had full remission of sins, and eternal salvation; and is called the Old Testament.
