The Lord's Day

February 2nd, 2020

"...the true use of the law can never be esteemed enough – namely, when the imprisoned conscience does not despair but is instructed by the wisdom of the Holy Spirit and is driven to seek the hand of a helper. In this way the law forces people to come to Christ, that he may satisfy them with his good things. The law's true function, then is to show us our sins, to make us guilty, to humble us, to kill us, to bring us down to hell, and finally to take away all help and all comfort; yet this is wholly in order that we may be justified, exalted, brought to life, carried up into heaven, and obtain everything good. Therefore, the law does not just kill, but it kills in order that we may live." Martin Luther)

Prelude
Welcome and Announcements

Mrs. Gloria Turner

*Call to Worship Psalm 145:1-3 ESV
I will extol you, my God and King, and bless your name forever and ever. Every day I will bless you and praise your name forever and ever. Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised, and his greatness is unsearchable.

*Invocation

*Hymn of Praise: God, My King, Thy Might Confessing Trinity #5

Confession of Faith

Of Christ the Mediator, WCF 8.4 (Fortress Ed.)

We believe...

This office the Lord Jesus did most willingly undertake, so that He may discharge His duties, He was made under the law, and did perfectly fulfil it; He endured most grievous torments immediately in His soul, and most painful sufferings in His body; was crucified, and died; was buried, and remained under the power of death, yet saw no decay. On the third day He arose from the dead, with the same body in which He suffered; with which also He ascended into heaven, and there sits at the right hand of His Father, making intercession; and shall return, to judge men and angels, at the end of the world.

Pastoral Prayer

Search me, O God, and know my heart! Try me and know my thoughts! And see if there be any grievous way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting! (Psalm 139:23-24 ESV)
