The Lord's Day

July 7th, 2019

Meditation

Those who by true faith are righteous, prove their righteousness by obedience and good works, not by a bare and imaginary mask of faith... [James] is not discussing in what manner we are justified but demanding of believers a righteousness fruitful in good works. And as Paul contends that we are justified apart from the help of works, so James does not allow those who lack good works to be reckoned righteous... James' words...express but two ideas: an empty show of faith does not justify, and a believer, not content with such an image, declares his righteousness by good works. John Calvin, Institutes 3.17.12

Prelude
Welcome and Announcements

*Call to Worship Psalm 100:1-5 ESV
A Psalm for giving thanks. Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth! Serve the Lord with gladness! Come into his presence with singing! Know that the Lord, he is God! It is he who made us, and we are his; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture. Enter his gates with thanksgiving, and his courts with praise! Give thanks to him; bless his name! For the Lord is good; his steadfast love endures forever, and his faithfulness to all generations.
